for the rough
month of June 2020 has still not been disbursed.

"As you can imagine, this non-payment of salary is causing great strife in the lives of the employees and requires immediate redressal," he said.

Further, a notification has been sent to employees that the duration of 6 months to 2 years is extending it to up to 5 years.

"It is appalling that such policies are made by Air India without considering the wellbeing and lives of its employees. The efficiency, draconian labour practices promulgated by Air India are unacceptable," Viswam said.

"I therefore, urge you to use the power of your office to ensure that the salaries for all employees across Air India and all its subsidiaries, including Alliance Air, are paid immediately. The decision of Air India to introduce this policy of leave without pay must be immediately withdrawn. A pro-active step on your part will bring immense relief to these employees and their families," he said.

Congress Lok Sabha MP Manish Tewari said in a letter to Puri, "The new compulsory leave scheme is a shocking aberration and reeks of a use and throw policy by the airline, at a time when we as a nation should be celebrating our Covid heroes."

"The compulsory leave scheme as I have understood from the circular is an arbitrary unbridled use of power and discretion and borders on unconstitutional use of discretionary powers," he said.

"This kind of compulsory leave scheme, which is actually retrenchment by another name, has been unheard of in any PSU in Independent India," Tewari added.

The Congress leader said that instead of restructuring Air India's top heavy management, the government is hell bent on removing employees. Tewari said while the Prime Minister has asked all employers to take care of the employees during the Covid crisis, "his own Civil Aviation Ministry does not seem to be paying heed to him".
